Gearing Up for Assisted Living Week

At Southwind Senior Living Suites, we are gearing up for the most fun time of the year! No, it's not Christmas yet... It's National Assisted Living Week! This week takes place September 10-15. During this week each day will have a different theme – Monday will be Superhero Day, Tuesday will be Talk Like a Pirate Day, Wednesday will be Western Day, Thursday will be Carnival Day, and Friday will be Hawaiian Day! Pictured below are residents Enez Marx, Mildred Landry, Linda Blanchette, and Jeanette Corley preparing their superhero masks for Superhero Day. Witnessing the Eclipse Southwind Senior Living residents enjoyed witnessing history last month when they put their cereal box solar viewers to use and watched as the eclipse took place. We also kept up with the eclipse news on television. This celestial phenomenon occurs when the moon passes between the sun and Earth and blocks all or part of the sun for up to about three hours, from beginning to end, as viewed from a given location. The last time the contiguous U.S. saw a total eclipse was in 1979. What an incredible sight!
